A CHART OF THE FIRST-CENTURY FULFILMENT

The Last Days Fulfilled

Chart 1 of 3 · "This Generation": from the Birth of Christ to the Fall of Jerusalem, AD 70

ROME · THE CAESARS

Augustus	Tiberius, AD 14–37	Caligula	Claudius, AD 41–54	Nero, AD 54–68		Vespasian

AD 68–69: Galba · Otho · Vitellius ↓

JUDEA · THE ROAD TO WAR

Herod	Pontius Pilate, AD 26–36	Agrippa I	Felix & Festus, c. AD 52–62	Florus	THE WAR

Herod the Great dies, 4 BC

AD 66–70 · see Charts 2 and 3

KEY TEXTS

"Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled." Matthew 24:34

"And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh." Luke 21:20

"For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry." Hebrews 10:37

HOW TO READ THIS CHART

- Christ and His Church
- Rome, and the judgment on Jerusalem
- The Parousia, as this study understands it

Before AD 26 the scale is compressed (//). Dates marked c. are approximate. Some scholars date the crucifixion to AD 33.

DATES AND SOURCES

On this site, AD 66–70 is the Jewish War as a whole; AD 67–70 the three-and-a-half-year campaign, which is also the Parousia period; and AD 70 the destruction itself. Sources: the King James Bible; Josephus, The Wars of the Jews; Tacitus, Annals 15.38–44; Eusebius, Church History 3.5.3.

Pat the GospelMan · reformationgospel.com